

Core Values

Love our customers

We love (yes, love) our customers — and do what it takes to earn their love back.

- Listen and learn from customers, users, and champions
- Prioritize their priorities
- Deepen partnership through trust and integrity

Build and own it

We are builders and owners of Okta, who care deeply about the work we do and who we do it with.

- Solve the hard problems, together
- Own the outcome and the impact
- Empower each other to do the best work of our careers

Always secure. Always on.

We build, educate, and advocate for a safer world, with pride and commitment to our mission-critical role.

- Ensure security and reliability — every person, every moment
- See around the corners
- Continuously raise the bar for the industry

Drive what's next

We are The World's Identity Company, delivering the future of Identity.

- Innovate with courage and a learner mindset
- Live up to our leadership role
- Move with speed and rapid decisions
