Bidding Overview – On Campus Interviewing: From Resume Drop to Interview Schedule

- Start by submitting your resume and cover letter for a particular job. You will be either placed on the closed list, alternate closed list, or you will need to bid points.
- If you are invited to the closed list, this will place you on the interview schedule. If you decide to decline the invitation, you will need to remove yourself from the interview schedule. If you are invited to the alternate closed list, you will be placed on the interview schedule if an interview spot opens up. You will know your rank on the alternate closed list. You are strongly encouraged to place a bid in the event a closed list interview spot does not become available.
- If you did not receive a closed list invitation, you may bid for a spot on the interview schedule.
- If you bid and are successful, you are placed on the interview schedule. You will be charged the points you bid to get onto the interview schedule.
- If you run out of bid points, and are offered a closed list spot, CDO will accept the closed list on your behalf.
